

Coupling of transition metal nuclei to other nuclei can cause signals to split, similar to the doublets, triplets and quartets seen in ^1H NMR.